

NC STATE UNIVERSITY

Campus & Community Resources

Supporting the Safety and Well-Being of the Wolfpack

The resources detailed in this document provide information and support to members of the Wolfpack. Details include who the resource serves, services available and contact details. Please note, resources identified with an * are confidential. Non-confidential resources in this list may have an obligation to report incidences of violence, including sexual and interpersonal violence.

University Reporting and Response

The resources listed below are able to receive and respond to reports of concerning behavior or misconduct of NC State students, employees, guests or visitors:

Bias Impact Response Team

bias-impact.ncsu.edu

Receives reports of identity-directed incidents and behaviors that impact individuals, groups and overall campus climate and provides support for those affected.

Employee Relations

er.hr.ncsu.edu | 919.515.6575

Provides consultation, support, and assistance regarding a wide range of individual employment or organizational effectiveness needs.

Equal Opportunity and Equity diversity.ncsu.edu/equal-opportunity

919.513.0574

Provides support and response regarding reports of discrimination, harassment and retaliation based on protected status (age, color, disability, genetic information, actual and perceived gender identity, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation and veteran status). An anonymous reporting option is also available.

Office of Student Conduct

studentconduct.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2693

Educates the NC State community about the community standards published in the Code of Student Conduct and holds students and student organizations accountable through developmentally appropriate sanctioning.

Violence Prevention and Threat Management

go.ncsu.edu/risk-assessment

919.513.4224 or 919.513.4315

Provides support and intervention to the NC State University community by working collaboratively with campus partners through the University Behavior Assessment Team (BAT) in identifying, deescalating and decreasing potentially violent activity from occurring on campus. Services include, but are not limited to, assessing reported incidents of concerning behavior, threat/case management and safety planning.

Off-Campus Community Support

The following community resources support all NC State students, employees, guests and visitors:

Healing Transitions*

healing-transitions.org | 919.838.9800

Serves the homeless and uninsured with alcoholism and other drug addictions.

InterAct*

interactofwake.org | 919.828.7740

Offers crisis counseling, information, assistance with shelter, emotional support, support groups, advocacy, assistance with domestic violence protective orders and criminal charges, court assistance and referrals to other agencies.

Solace Center*

interactofwake.org/whatwedo/the-solace-center

866.291.0854 or 919.828.3067

Designated area for the forensic examination and treatment of survivors of sexual violence. Is not affiliated with NC State University.

Wake County District Attorney's Office

www.nccourts.gov/locations/wake-county

919.792.4000

Includes information about the Wake County Justice Center and court services.

Emergency Assistance and Crisis Intervention

Provides support to all NC State students, employees, guests and visitors:

University Police

police.ehps.ncsu.edu

911 for emergencies or 919.515.3000 for non-emergencies

Provides response and support to the NC State University community for campus emergencies, investigates crimes, patrol campus and provides other safety-related services including safety escorts.

On-Campus Community Support

The following resources provide an array of support for NC State students:

African American Cultural Center

ncsu.edu/aacc | 919.515.5210

Provides resources, education on and support for people of Black, African American and African descent.

Disability Resource Office

dro.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.7653

Determines reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. DRO may also assist students navigating temporary impairments.

GLBT Center

ncsu.edu/glbt | 919.513.9742

Provides resources, education on and support for all sexual orientations, gender identities and gender expressions.

Military and Veteran Services

veterans.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.5041

A centralized resource and service center for all military-affiliated students including current and former military members, spouses and dependents.

Multicultural Student Affairs

ncsu.edu/msa

multicultural@ncsu.edu

Promotes social and restorative justice and intercultural initiatives on campus and in the community.

Office of International Services

internationalservices.ncsu.edu

919.515.2961

A resource office for international students, scholars and dependents that provides immigration advising, support services and cultural programming.

Prevention Services

prevention.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.4405

Provides comprehensive student support on topics including academic success, alcohol and other drugs, concerning behaviors, collegiate recovery and mental wellness. Prevention Services can also receive reports regarding concerning student behavior.

Respondent Services

diversity.ncsu.edu/respondent-services

919.515.4405

Provides support to individuals accused of engaging in sexual harassment or interpersonal violence (relationship violence, sexual assault, stalking, etc.) in understanding resolution processes and assisting with supportive measures.

Sexual Assault Helpline

go.ncsu.edu/supportsurvivors | ncsuadvocate@ncsu.edu

919.515.4444

Provides crisis intervention, emotional support, resources and referrals 24/7/365 to members of the campus community impacted by dating violence, sexual violence, stalking and other forms of interpersonal violence, including by offering service to those impacted by sexual and relationship violence.

University Housing

housing.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2440

University Housing provides support to the campus community through a 24-hour on-call system. Housing staff is trained to assist residents and students with a variety of concerns and to refer to necessary resources.

Women's Center

ncsu.edu/womens-center

919.515.2012

Provides support to survivors of interpersonal violence (relationship violence, sexual assault, stalking, etc.) in understanding their options for supportive measures and resolution processes in addition to navigating healing and recovery.

Confidential Assistance

The following resources can provide confidential support to NC State students or employees:

Faculty and Staff Assistance Program*

guidanceresources.com

Web ID: FASAP | 866.467.0467 | TDD: 800.697.0353

Provides NC State University employees and their dependents with confidential emotional support, work-life solutions, legal guidance, financial resources and online support.

Faculty and Staff Ombuds Office*

rjbaroff@ncsu.edu | 919.935.0922

Assists NC State faculty and staff in resolving issues, concerns and conflicts related to their university working environment. Provides information and identifies resources to strengthen work relationships, support constructive problem solving and inform decision making.

NC State Counseling Center*

counseling.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2423

Utilizes a Stepped Care approach to connect NC State students with services which may include: referral to additional supports and resources, workshops, drop-in spaces, groups, short term individual therapy, psychiatric services, or assistance with referrals for off-campus services. Call 24/7/365 for mental health emergencies.

Student Health Services*

healthypack.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2563

Meets the health needs of NC State University students by providing affordable, on-campus access to top-quality medical care from highly qualified professionals including primary care, gynecology services, pharmacy support, nutritional counseling, physical therapy and other general and specialty services.

Student Ombuds Office*

student-ombuds@ncsu.edu | 919.513.0235

Assists NC State students in resolving problems related to their university working, learning or living experience. The ombuds also serves as the point of contact for students experiencing food, housing and/or financial insecurity.

University Student Legal Services*

studentlegal.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.7091

Provides NC State University students with education, advice and representation within the scope of the prepaid student legal services plan, including employment, tenant/landlord issues, domestic concerns, immigration and advice regarding criminal matters.